STATE OF CALIFORNIA
ENERGY RESOURCES CONSERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION

NOTICE OF 15-DAY LANGUAGE:
UPDATE OF BUILDING EFFICIENCY STANDARDS
TO CURRENT NFRC RATING AND LABELING PROCEDURES
Docket Number 02-NFRC-1

In late October 2002 the California Energy Commission ("Commission") mailed notices of proposed amendments to the energy efficiency building standards in Title 24, Part 6, of the California Code of Regulations.

The Commission's Efficiency Standards Committee ("Committee") held a public hearing to take comment on the proposed amendments on November 13, 2002. An opportunity for comment was also available before the full Commission on December 11, 2002. A possible adoption hearing was continued to February 5, 2003, pending issuance of 15-Day Language (changes to the 45-Day Language).

MEETING WILL BE WEBCAST

The Commission is now issuing changes to the proposed amendments (15-Day Language) based on public comment and staff recommendations. These proposed changes are attached to this notice. The proposed amendments will be considered for final adoption at the February 5, 2003 Commission Business Meeting. Written comments will be accepted until the date of this adoption, and oral comments may be made at the February 5, 2003 business meeting.

Public comments are most useful if they are specific and, to the extent possible, recommend specific language changes.

The Commission maintains a record of all public comments and relevant documents in the Commission's Docket Office, Docket 02-NFRC-1. These documents, including the Commission's staff reports, are available for public inspection in the Commission's docket office and on line at http://www.energy.ca.gov/nfrc_rulemaking/documents/index.html.
